

Invitation to Course

Molecular Cell Biology II

Instructor: Carl-Philipp Heisenberg

Course Description: Molecular Cell Biology II is an introductory course on all molecular and cellular concepts from biology. We will discuss the structure and function of cells and tissues from a molecular and cell biological point of view. This course builds on basic knowledge from MCB I and provides an introduction to Neuroscience I and II.

Coursework: Grades will be based on classroom participation, solutions to homework questions, and performance in final exam.

Course schedule: 2 weekly 75 min lectures Tuesdays and Thursdays, 1 weekly 50 min recitation

Course Academic Credits: 3 ECTS
